Presentation Rubric (out of 100)

Category	Scoring Criteria	Total Points
Quality of slides	Slides are made professionally: - Good use of figures/tables - Slides are readable and easy to follow	5
	Information is easy to follow, and a good balance of detail and high-level information is provided	5
Introduction	Introduction/Motivation clearly defines the application in the work. It also appropriately cites relevant literature.	10
Problem Definition	The problem formulation is clearly stated, and the constraints are discussed clearly	10
Methodology	Datasets and resources are described	5
	The solution, its architecture, and its details are described appropriately	20
Results	Results are evaluated using rigorous metrics	10
	The results of the proposed solution are compared to appropriate alternative baselines	15
Conclusion	Conclusions and pros/cons are discussed appropriately	10
Presenter	Information was well communicated by the presenter	10
	Total Points	100